Guidelines on Minimum Facilities Standards For Education and Training Institutions

1st edition: December 2005

1st Amended Edition: February 2011

1.0 Introduction

The guidelines provide details of minimum requirements set by the Ministry of Education and Youth for the provision of physical facilities for learners by registered and approved education and training institutions.

The minimum facilities standards shall, where necessary, be considered together with other regulations and/or guidelines governing construction, use and maintenance of physical infrastructure.

Central to the minimum facilities standards guideline is the interest of the learner. It seeks to ensure that at the level of facilities- those in place allow individual learners to undertake education and training provided/to be provided in a reasonably conducive and safe environment.

To be considered for registration to provide education and training services, providers shall guarantee that they shall;

- operate institutions of education and training that meet the stated minimum standards for facilities.
- undertake to meet the stated standards for facilities in an agreed period of time where based on available information this is judged not to the case.

The Minimum Facilities Standards shall be reviewed whenever this is considered necessary.
